Positive outcome for Victim when Media & Law Enforcement Work Together!

Both the 30' Classic Trailer and the 1937 Fiat Topolino have been recovered from southwest Detroit.

On 06/20/2012 at approximately 9:30pm Officers from the Macomb Auto Thefts Squad (MATS) received information that the stolen 30' Classic Trailer was in a lot on the Southwest side of Detroit. MATS recovered the stolen 30' Classic Trailer on the 2300 block of Wendell Street in the City of Detroit. The trailer was empty and the 1937 Fiat Topolino (purple/silver) was still missing.

On 06/21/2012 New Baltimore Police Detectives along with Officers from MATS responded to Southwest Detroit and made contact with several citizens in the area and surrounding area of where the trailer was located. At approximately 8:00pm a citizen contacted Richard's Auto Parts Store and stated they had seen the Media Release and that the vehicle was on Jefferson Avenue in Detroit. The owner responded to southwest Detroit and recovered his 1937 Fiat Topolino in 6000 block of Jefferson Avenue.

At this time investigators still haven't identified the whereabouts or identities of the persons of interest, citizens are encouraged to contact the New Baltimore Police Department at (586) 725-2181.
